

Your membership helps us to support the museum in a variety of ways.

Over the years Friends of Rotorua Museum have acquired a rich collection of contemporary New Zealand art, which is stored by Rotorua Museum and available for use in a range of exhibitions.

In conjunction with the museum Friends have co-hosted a number of art exhibitions such as Mudpool Modernism and Wilfred Stanley Wallis' The Area in Between.

Friends promote awareness and enjoyment of Rotorua Museum as an essential part of our community.

We are here to help the museum in any way we can - supporting existing programmes and initiating projects of our own.

Friends provide a tangible link between the museum and our community.

Friends also support the museum in practical projects including the purchase of gallery stools, a wheelchair, and the recent purchase of a new Taonga Māori cloak storage unit.

We hold talks and openings and would love to see you there.
