

Kia ora

Rotorua Museum's Autumn season of changing exhibitions and events is full of surprises.

There is 70s fashion, striking photography and stunning New Zealand ceramics.

The exhibitions are supported by an exciting range of events including floor talks, craft activities, workshops and much more.

EVENTS

Andrew Warner — A Talk on Contemporary Photography

Date: Sunday 30 March 2014
• 2pm

Cost: FREE with admission
In conjunction with Now & Then, photographer Andrew Warner discusses his practice and most recent work.

Show and Tell Your 70s Outfits

Date: Sunday 13 April 2014
• 11am

Cost: FREE with admission
Bring in your 70s garments to share with New Zealand Fashion Museum curator Doris de Pont. Your garments will be photographed for the NZ Fashion Museum archives, in conjunction with The Age of Aquarius.

A Talk by Doris de Pont

Date: Sunday 13 April 2014
• 2pm

Cost: FREE with admission
Hear from the curator of the New Zealand Fashion Museum as she talks about The Age of Aquarius exhibition and her own career in the fashion industry.

Zine Making Q&A with Alex Jespersen

Date: Thursday 24 April 2014
• 6.30pm

Cost: FREE
Experienced zine (small magazine) maker and creative writing teacher, Alex Jespersen, will answer your questions and share her own experiences in the NZ zine community. This special event is part of the 125th anniversary celebrations for Rotorua Library.

ANZAC Day - Ka maumahara tonu tātau ki a rātou

Date: Friday 25 April 2014
• 7am - 5pm

Cost: FREE with admission
Leave a message on our ANZAC remembrance boards.

Te Ara Floor Talk with Paul Tapsell

Date: Sunday 18 May 2014
• 11am

Cost: FREE with admission
Exhibition curator Paul Tapsell gives a guided talk through Te Ara: Māori Pathways of Leadership.

Event times, dates and prices may change. For specific event information, prices and bookings contact Naomi Murgatroyd, email: naomi.murgatroyd@rdc.govt.nz or phone 07 351 8055. For complete details of what's on at Rotorua Museum visit www.rotoruamuseum.co.nz

Rotorua Museum ANZAC Day remembrance board, 2013

FOR KIDS

National Children's Day

Date: Sunday 2 March 2014
• 10am - 3pm
Cost: FREE Museum entry for all children, 15 years and under
A fun day of crafts, face painting, kids tours and café specials. The 'Young Curators' of Be Amazed! will be based in their exhibition throughout the day to answer questions.

Rotorua Museum National Children's Day, 2013

Muka Prints Art Sale for Kids

Dates: Saturday 15 & Sunday 16 March 2014 • 12 noon - 4pm
Cost: FREE with admission
This unique concept allows children 5 to 18 years to enjoy art in an 'adult free' space. All prints are for sale at $67.

The Great Rotorua Museum Easter Egg Hunt

Dates: Friday 18 April - Sunday 4 May 2014 • 9am - 5pm

Cost: FREE with admission
The hunt is on with new clues, designer eggs and a massive chocolate hamper to be won.

April School Holiday Drop-In Crafts

Dates: Monday 21 April - Friday 2 May 2014 • 10am - 3pm

Cost: FREE with admission
Craft activities for all the family.

Zine Making Workshops for Kids

Date: Thursday 24 April 2014

• Session One 10.30am - 12.30pm (10-13 years)
• Session Two 1.30pm - 3.30pm (13-18 years)
Cost: $5 per child

Experienced zine maker, Alex Jespersen, will teach kids how to create their own zine using collage, drawing and writing. Book at Rotorua Museum or Rotorua Library. This special event is part of Rotorua Library's 125th anniversary celebrations.

Museum Café

Enjoy great coffee and a tasty all-day menu with lovely views over Government Gardens.

Museum Gift Shop

Browse a great range of quality New Zealand crafts, souvenirs and books.

FRIENDS of Rotorua Museum

Friends of Rotorua Museum

Become a member of Friends of Rotorua Museum, enjoy special openings and talks, and help promote awareness of the Museum. Email: rotorua_museumfriends@gmail.com

OPEN DAILY

9am - 5pm (Mar - Nov)
9am - 6pm (Dec - Feb)

Contact Details

Rotorua Museum
Phone: 07 350 1814
Oruawhata Drive
Government Gardens, Rotorua
www.rotoruamuseum.co.nz

AUTUMN
2014
SEASON

ROTORUA museum

ART | CULTURE | HERITAGE

WHAT'S ON

COVER: Dennis K. Turner: The Face No. 1 (detail), 1960. Rotorua Museum. Courtesy of Sam Harbutt

ROTORUA museum

Te Whare Taonga o Te Arawa
ART | CULTURE | HERITAGE

Berry Beckett: Trove Paper Ray (detail), early 1960s. Collection of The Dovey Art Museum. Photo: Haru Samshima

Down the Hall on a Saturday Night Until 16 March 2014

A nostalgic look at five rural Rotorua halls in the heart of their communities.

Andrew Warner. Cups, plates and ashtrays, Broadlands Hall (detail), 2013. Rotorua Museum

Matatoki— Contemporary Māori Carving Until 16 March 2014

Matatoki brings together the work of some of the very best internationally-recognised contemporary carvers in New Zealand.

Fayne Robinson. Awhiohia a Taramakau (detail), 2013. Photograph courtesy of Rotorua Museum

Carved Canvas Until 16 March 2014

A selection of paintings from Rotorua Museum's own collection showcasing Māori carving traditions in paint.

Robyn Kahukiwa. Whangaia Ta Taua Tuahine, He Tangi I A Taua (detail), 1985. Rotorua Museum

On the Wing Until April 2014

January saw the first ever urban release of three young karearea at Rotorua Museum. Come and view the exhibition about these endangered falcons and see if you can spot them in Government Gardens.

Hatupatu in flight (detail), 2014. Photograph by David Galley

The Age of Aquarius: A 1970s Revolution in Fashion

Until 11 May 2014

Often referred to as 'the Age of Aquarius', the 1970s was a decade of personal liberation and awakening social consciousness. This exhibition is an opportunity to experience the 1970s through the wardrobes of New Zealand fashionistas and some of the designers, makers and manufacturers of the time.

Show and Tell Your 70s Outfits

Date: Sunday 13 April 2014 • 11am
Cost: FREE with admission

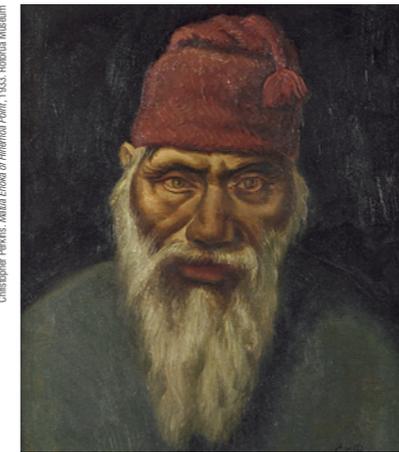

A Talk by Doris de Pont

Date: Sunday 13 April 2014 • 2pm
Cost: FREE with admission

Shirtwaister dress and pants (detail). Courtesy of Eloise Watts and the New Zealand Fashion Museum

Christopher Perkins. Albion Erolia of Hiramson Point, 1933. Rotorua Museum

Now & Then: Enduring and developing themes in contemporary New Zealand photography

15 March – 11 May 2014

Now & Then explores the trends and themes of New Zealand fine art photography over the past four decades.

Showcasing works from as early as 1969 to as recent as 2011, Now & Then has been developed and toured by Te Manawa Museum of Art, History and Science.

Andrew Warner — A Talk on Contemporary Photography

Date: Sunday 30 March 2014 • 2pm
Cost: FREE with admission

Max Oetli. Leonard and Rover, Suva, Fiji (detail), 1974. Collection of Te Manawa Art Society Inc. and courtesy of Te Manawa Museums Trust

Saaron Lowe. Lizzy and son, 2012. Courtesy of the artist

Second Glance: Photographs by the Rotorua Camera Club Until 13 April 2014

Second Glance is an exhibition by award-winning photographers from our local Camera Club.

Dennis K. Turner. Tiki Soko S19, 1981. Gow Langshier Gallery. Courtesy of Sam Hainnett

A Continuous Line: The Art of Dennis K. Turner

29 March – 15 June 2014

Over sixty art works by this influential artist are presented together for the first time in a large scale survey exhibition curated by historian Richard Wolfe and toured by the Gus Fisher Gallery. The exhibition includes 12 works from Rotorua Museum's own collection.

Mirror Mirror

29 March – 25 May 2014

Mirror Mirror includes a range of portraits from the Rotorua Museum collection. From contemporary impressions in a variety of media to the more traditional paintings of the early 20th century, this is an opportunity to see the diverse approaches New Zealand artists have taken to portraiture over the years.

John Roy. Evie (detail), 2012. Image courtesy of Suljeant Gallery

Safety in Numbers

12 April – 13 July 2014

Ceramic artist John Roy has created a suite of installations for Rotorua Museum. Hidden in nooks and crannies throughout the building he challenges visitors to discover his works in unlikely places outside traditional gallery spaces.

Te Ara: Māori Pathways of Leadership

29 March – 15 June 2014

Te Ara is a visual survey of leadership in the Māori world – past, present and future. Featuring large scale photographs by Krzysztof Pfeiffer, and curated by Paul Tapsell and Merata Kawharu, this unique exhibition returns home after being shown in museums around the world.

Taiaha (detail). Photograph by Krzysztof Pfeiffer

His Own Steam: The Work of Barry Brickell

24 May – 24 August 2014

This retrospective exhibition celebrates one of New Zealand's most endearing potters. Famous for his passion for railways and conservation, Brickell expresses a playful and quirky nature in his works that span over five decades. Toured by The Dowse Art Museum.

Barry Brickell in his studio (detail). Image by Haru Sameshima

