

Street Wise

Rotorua Streets - Now and Then

Match the historic image letter with the current day image number.
Look at all the changes!

ROTORUA
museum
Te Whare Taonga o Te Arawa
ART | CULTURE | HERITAGE

Credits over page

Activities

All Ages

Look at each location in the photographs carefully and discuss the following :

- What clues did you use to match the photos up?
- What looks the same today? What looks different?
- Who or what is in the photo?
- What do you think this place might look like in 100 years' time?

Juniors

Create your own town using any of the following:

Minecraft, Lego, blocks or cardboard boxes

Show us your creations by emailing: museumED@rotorualc.nz

Seniors

Imagine Rotorua is about to have a brand new residential subdivision in Owhata.

Come up with your own idea for a new street name with the reasons these names should be used.

Draw your street sign and send it in with your explanation to musumED@rotorualc.nz

Image Credits (From previous page)

A: Lake Road looking west, circa 1905. Photographer unknown.

Collection of Rotorua Museum Te Whare Taonga o Te Arawa (CP-2598)

B: South-east corner of Tutanekai and Hinemoa Streets, circa 1950s. Photographer unknown.

Collection of Rotorua Museum Te Whare Taonga o Te Arawa (CP-2579)

C: Northern side of Hinemoa Street, between Tutanekai and Fenton Street junctions, circa 1890, photographer unknown.

Collection of Rotorua Museum Te Whare Taonga o Te Arawa (CP-2594)

D: Looking east on Hinemoa Street, circa 1930. Photographer unknown.

Collection of Rotorua Museum Te Whare Taonga o Te Arawa (CP-2592)

All modern day images courtesy of Marc Spijkerbosch.